Through the Looking Glass: Kids' Theatre Workshop

An introduction to the absurd and fabulous world of theatre, for kids where creativity, empathy and playfulness come together using drama and everything is different!

Age: 8-13 | Fee: Rs. 250

The Theatre Thing: A Community Theatre Workshop

An initiative that brings theatre back to people, and with it, all the magic and melodrama of the stage into everyday life. Join us to rediscover the importance of imaginative thinking through the act of serious play.

Age: 15-85 | Fee: Rs. 200

'I am Slam': A performance Poetry Workshop

The third in a series of exploratory workshops on poetry for performance, 'I am Slam' explores the art form of the Spoken Word through a participatory, cross media approach- taking poetry as we know it to the next level.

Age: 15-95 | Fee: Rs. 200 (Student discount available)

Film Club:

Trikal

Ghosts and ghost-stories make up the theme for the Library this October. So, the Bookworm Film Club takes a ghoulish pleasure in inviting you to a screening of 'Trikal'. Directed by Shyam Benegal, this 1979 film explores the secret past of three generations of an aristocratic family in Goa, and what happens when their secrets have not yet been laid to rest.

Age: 15 and above | Fee: Rs. 50

Bhooter Bhabishyat

The Bookworm Film Club invites you to a screening of 'Bhooter Bhabishyat', a Bengali film with English subtitles. In keeping with Bookworm's theme of ghosts and ghost stories for this October, A comedy and a wildly popular film in West Bengal, 'Bhooter Bhabishyat' depicts the plight of all the ghosts who are driven out of their old homes, with the re-development of the city of Kolkata.

Age: Open to all ages | Fee: Rs. 50

The Premiere:

As Bookworm completes its tenth year in Goa, we find that no matter what else changes, book-lovers will always be book-lovers. Despite these grim digital times, bookishness is not yet dead! In celebration of this, we invite you to the Grand Opening of our Library's Mature Readers' Collection. A premiere/ party entirely centered around reading and its delicious possibilities, we tempt you to join our community of eccentric, inventive and anachronistic book-lovers, above the age of 15.

So, come celebrate reading with us, in an evening filled with candlelight, stories and the most eclectic collection of books this side of the Zuari! All are welcome.

(All those attending this premiere will be offered membership to the Library at an extraordinarily discounted rate.)
