

The Story of

Narkasura

A long time ago,

there lived a bad king called Narkasura

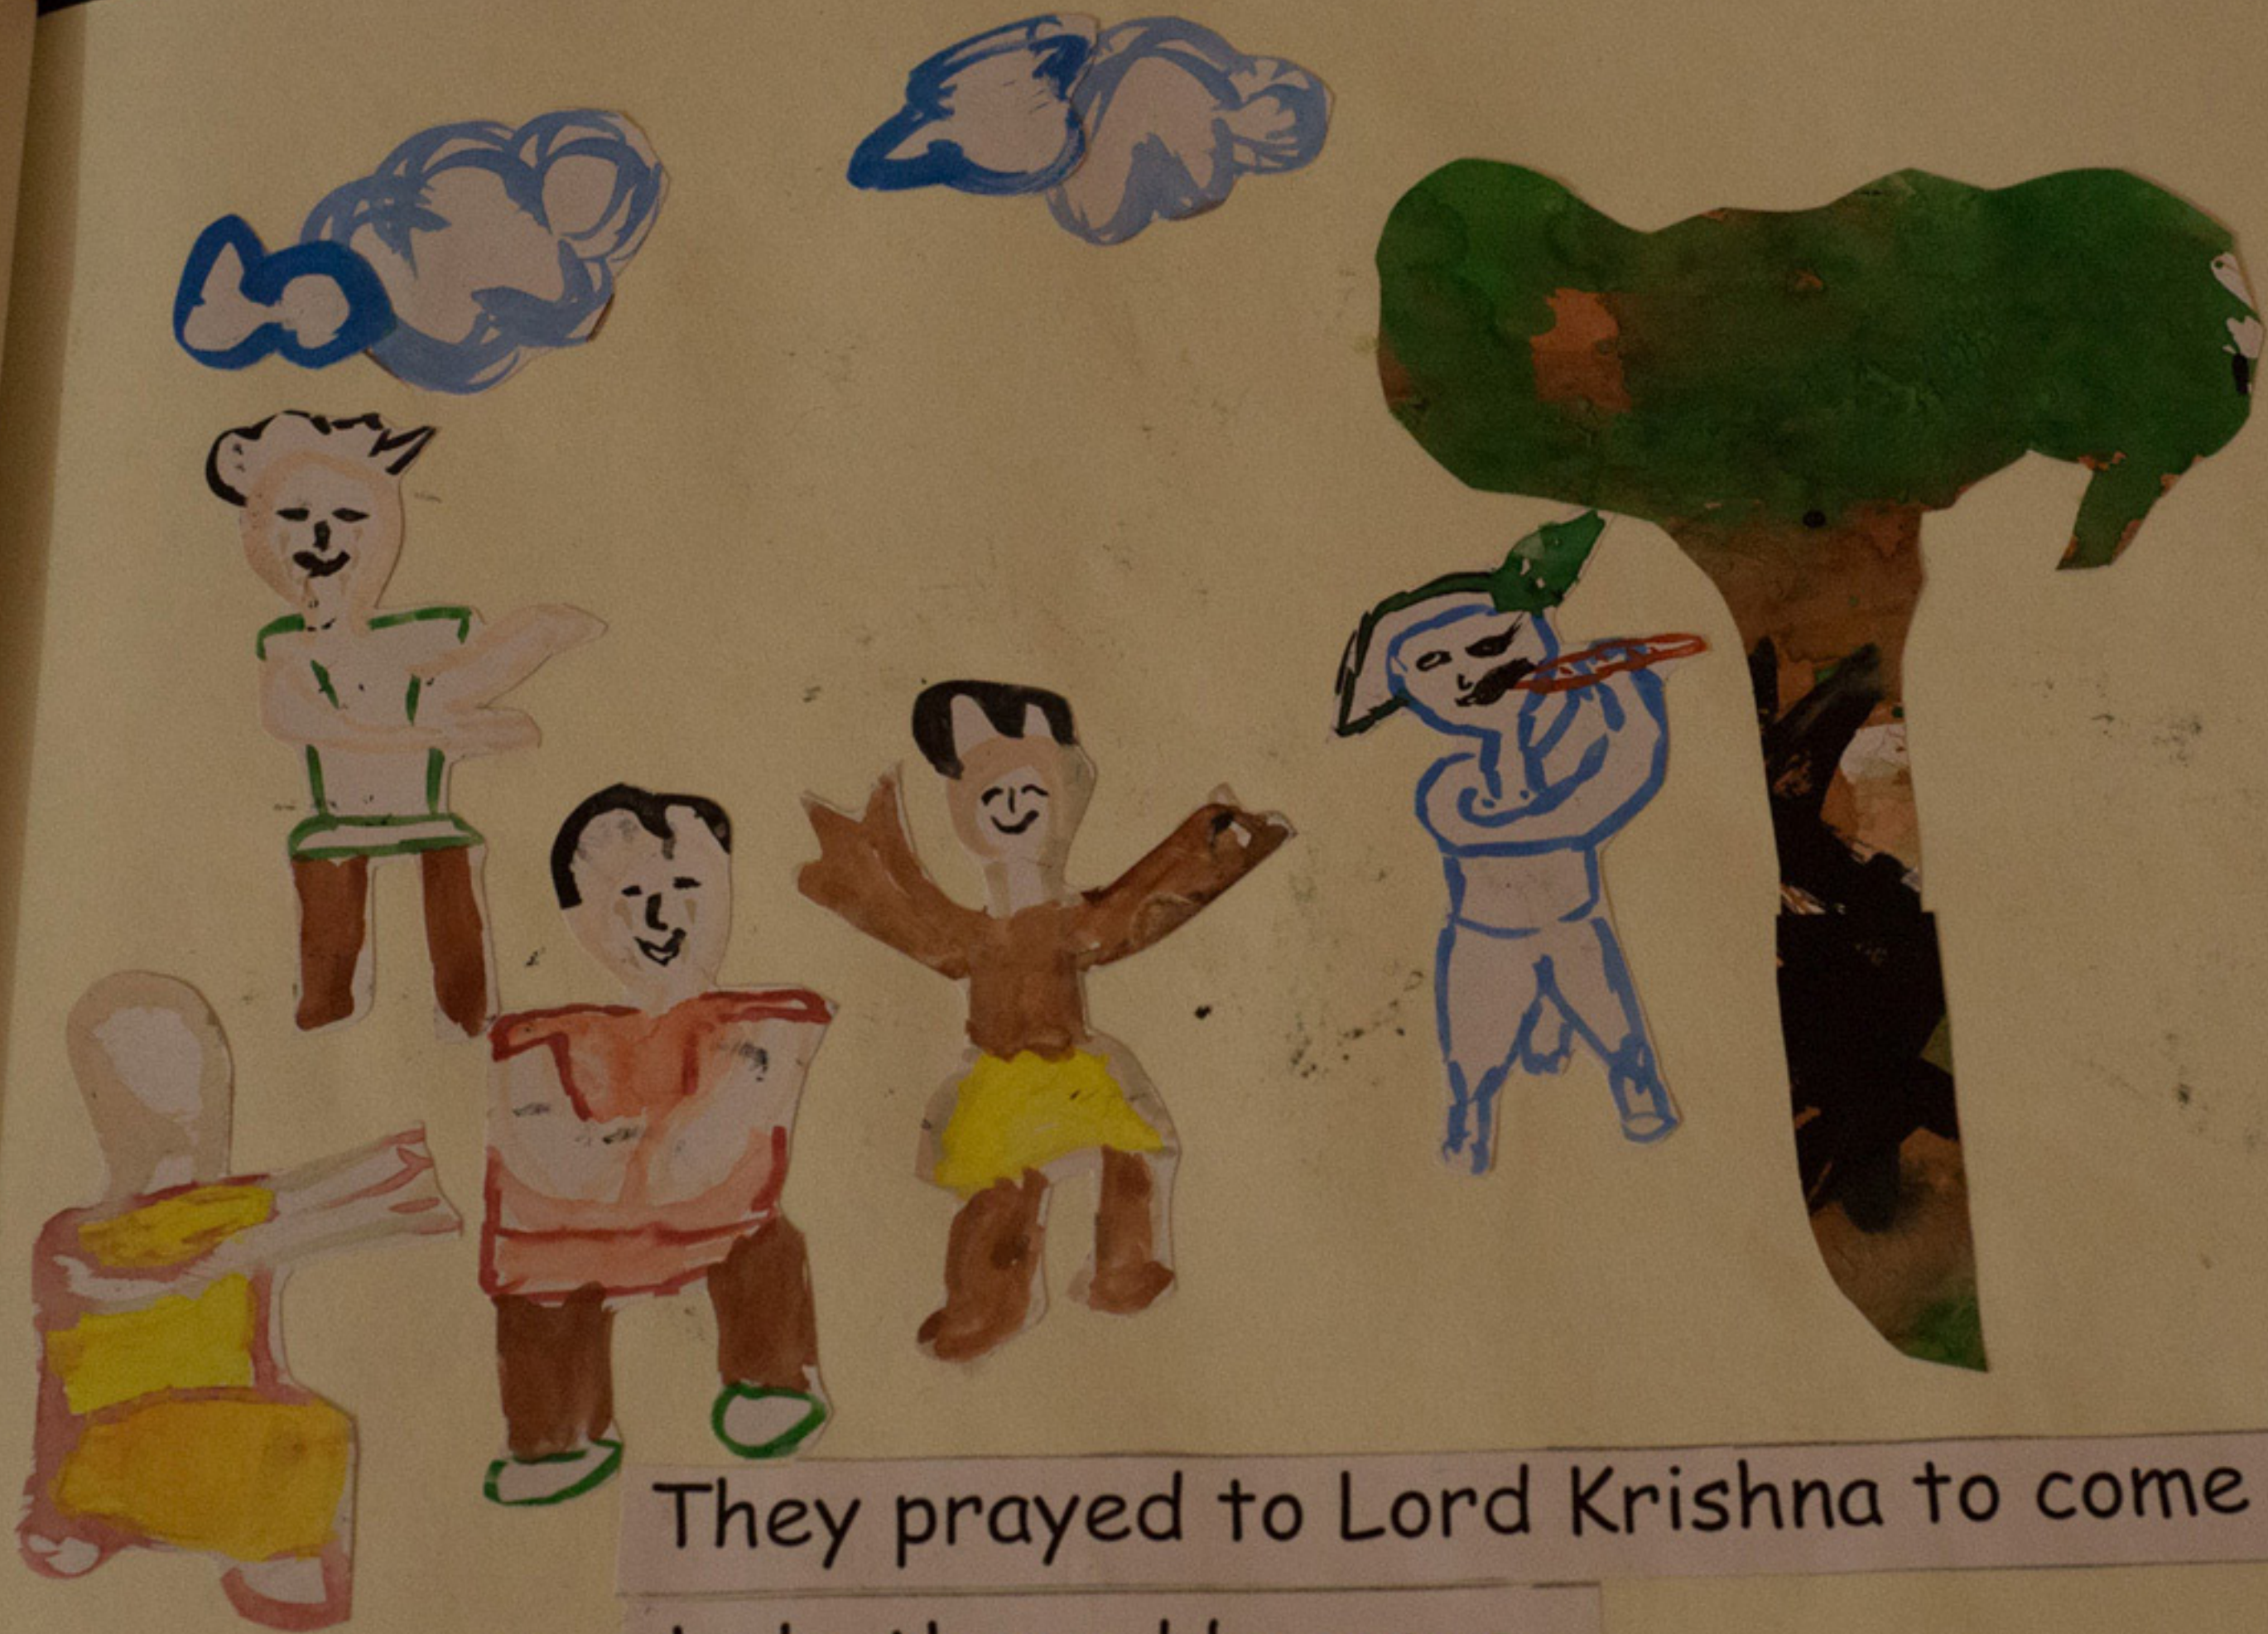

The people were sad and scared.

Their lives were full of darkness.

They prayed to Lord Krishna to come and help them. He came.

He fought with Narkasura and killed him.

The people were happy.

They lit lamps .

They celebrated the light in their lives.

The Story of Narkasura was created by the children of St. Inez MOP in October 2013, as a giant Narkasur effigy was being built outside the MOP site. For all the children it was the first time they had to think about why Narkasura was burnt every year before Diwali.

The session was facilitated by Mazooz, Krystal, Sujata and Niju of team Bookworm
